

ADALYA KOLEJI

PARROT ENGLISH

Grade 3

“We must only use English in class unless we need to use the “break glass in case of an emergency””

SET TASKS

(Story Books)

Reading to Students and students to teacher –
Refer to Reading Components for further details in the teachers instructions file.

(Grade3 File)

Spelling – Words from the yearly spelling list and/or word from textbooks used can be practiced as they are learnt and can also refer to the Teachers Instructions file.

(Teachers Instructions)

Sentence Building – Start with simple sentences then grow on the number of words in the sentences.

(Grade3 File)

Commands/Phrasal Verbs - Encourage students to use commands and common phrasal verbs. Refer to Phrasal Verbs tasks from the Teachers Instructions file.

Vocabulary building – All kinds of words shall be learnt through topics, tasks and with the use of their picture dictionary throughout the year.

Flash Cards - verbs - nouns

Role Plays - Every single student should be involved or encouraged to be involved in role plays. Acting out stories they’ve learnt. Refer to Role Play guide from the Teachers Instructions file.

286 FREE Role Playing Games Worksheets

Dialogs - In every shape and form include dialogs in every lesson. Particularly focus on questions and answers of all kinds. Make sure students do both the questioning and answering.

<https://www.esllibrary.com/courses/76/lessons>

Readers – variety

(Teachers Instructions)

Show and Tell - I want students to stand up in front of the class and talk about any topic or show and tell about an item of interest that the student chooses. The student can be encouraged to bring personal items from home or even describe a picture/personal photo of choice. If possible or convenient you can video record the student performing this task with their permission. Refer to Show and Tell details from the Teachers Instructions file.

(Teachers Instructions)

Picture Works - Verbal and at times written descriptions of pictures and other visual material. Student can stand up and describe and talk about the picture.

(Teacher discretion)

Games - Refer to Games information from the Teachers Instructions file.

Translation – Students take in turns the task of translating starting from words to sentences of topics of interest. Probably in a game format too.

Folio - All students without fail along with a notebook, must keep a folio containing all handouts and work done in class including homework.